Our Experience

Total Show Technology (TST), founded in 1996, is a premier nationwide audiovisual (AV) contractor and AV rental company headquartered in Las Vegas, Nevada. TST delivers exemplary AV service and event production to thousands of clients each year nationwide. We are an elite group of AV technology artists, delivering total show production to convey your event message as effectively as possible.

TST has partnered with more than 3,500 clients year-over-year to produce large-scale events and deliver exceptional event production. TST's clients include leading event producers such as Legendary Entertainment Group, Inc., Derse, Steelhead Productions, and Astound Group. TST is a different kind of AV company. All our staff, from our president to our sales team to our AV technicians and warehouse crew, are committed to exceeding your expectations every time.

Unparalleled Customer Service

Our educated and experienced professionals will make sure you receive reliable and unparalleled AV service that you can count on. We deliver dependable customer service every time, with AV technicians and experts who handle all your AV and event production needs from beginning to end.

Our Services

Our clients need a partner that can help them bring their vision to life. They need their partner to offers ideas and solutions that make their lives easier and make their events the best they can be. Their partner needs to get the job done right every time.

In an industry where almost anything can go wrong, we make sure everything goes right.

TST provides total show production audiovisual services, including design, installation, and live operation/production. Our areas of expertise include audio, video, LED walls, lighting, rigging, staging, drape, computers and laptops, gear rentals, and affordable Wi-Fi. In addition, we provide AV technicians and staffing, and we travel with our client to support their shows nationwide.

Why TST?

Whether you're looking for audiovisual support or advanced event technologies that enable you to deliver your message effectively, we help your shows go off without a hitch and always make you look good.

In an industry where almost anything can go wrong, we make sure everything goes right.

Based in Las Vegas, Total Show Technology is the total show production solution for anyone who hosts, plans, manages, or produces trade shows, conferences, meetings, corporate meetings, and nightclub events. We own the Pacific Southwest market and travel with our clients nationwide.

Our clients have relied on us to deliver audio, video, LED walls, lighting, staging, gear rentals, and total show production for trade shows, conventions, corporate meetings, and events since 1996.

The Right Connections

In Las Vegas and throughout the Pacific Southwest, it's all about who you know.

We know Las Vegas and the Pacific Southwest. We know all the major players and venues and have built relationships with event companies and professionals throughout the region.

TST is your TOTAL SHOW SOLUTION.

In the fast-paced events industry, what you know and who you know are everything. Organizations need an AV partner that lives up to their promises and provides consistently reliable customer service, even under pressure. They need a partner than covers every contingency, handles every last detail, and brings them peace of mind.

- We have the staff, training, equipment inventory, and expertise to deliver full-service event production.
- We support everything from a single trade show exhibit to small shows at intimate venues to large general sessions attended by thousands of people with dozens of simultaneous breakouts.
- Our clients rely on us as their trusted production partner, and we support their shows nationwide.

Exceptional Service

Commitment means that a responsive team takes ownership of your event from start to finish. It means if you need something, you can simply pick up the phone, and we'll make it happen. It means service, collaboration, consistency – and no surprises.

Your reputation matters. Our reputation matters, too. We never forget that your interests are our interests.

As our long-term, valued client relationships and our reputation in Las Vegas attest, we've got your back.

Here's what you can expect from TST:

- Your account manager will manage the entire production process, including booking labor, requisitioning equipment, and coordinating freight and travel.
- While you will have one dedicated point of contact, our entire company will answer to you.
- Your event production team will show up on time and make sure all equipment is up and running.
- Your production team is empowered to make decisions and solve problems on show site.
- You will be able to rely on this team as your behind-the-scenes solution that makes headaches disappear and always makes you look good.

The Best Team in Vegas – and Everywhere Else We Go

Everybody says their staff is best.
Ours actually is.

Every member of our team shares our commitment to integrity and service, and they gain professional opportunities they wouldn't have elsewhere. They're the sorts of people you want supporting your shows. And you'll have plenty of chances to get to know them, as you'll work with the same dedicated crew show after show.

Our employees are trained, empowered, and equipped to do whatever you need – and whatever it takes – to achieve your event vision. A few things to know about our employees:

- Our people undergo a multi-stage hiring process that enables us to select from among the most personable and conscientious talent in the industry.
- Once we hire new team members, they stick around. Our average employee tenure is 8+ years, which is unheard of in the AV production industry.
- Our staff gain training and professional opportunities, including industry-leading AVIXA/CTS training, that they wouldn't have anywhere else.
- Employees enter our Audiovisual Technician Program on their first day and build on this foundation of learning throughout their careers at TST.

Ideas and Outcomes

Whether you're looking for audiovisual production support or advanced event technologies that enable you to deliver your message effectively, TST can help your shows go off without a hitch and always make you look good.

Audiovisual event production isn't just about the latest and greatest technologies. It's about what you are trying to achieve and the best way to achieve it.

Our clients want guidance from the planning stage through successful execution of their vision. They want creative alternatives and viable solutions that optimize their budgets, make a big impact on the look and feel of their events, and bring consistent results in line with their goals.

We've supported every kind of show in every type of venue throughout the Pacific Southwest. We know what works, what doesn't, and why. As your advisor and partner, we collaborate, listen, and take care of all the details.

Industry Memberships

As an active member of EPN, an EDPA Las Vegas, and AVIXA, TST is strongly committed to driving education and growth throughout the experiential, exhibit, and event industries.

TST's industry memberships and CTS certifications reflect our commitment to being among the best AV event production companies in the world.

How can you gauge the reputation, expertise, and reliability of an AV event production company?

Start by making sure your AV partner is a member of the Event Production Network (EPN), a highly selective North American alliance that partners with meeting planners, producers, and event organizers to create memorable events.

Also make sure your AV partner is a sponsor and active member of Experiential Designers and Producers Association (EDPA), an organization committed to creating effective face-to-face customer experiences and environments for trade shows, events, and corporate environments.

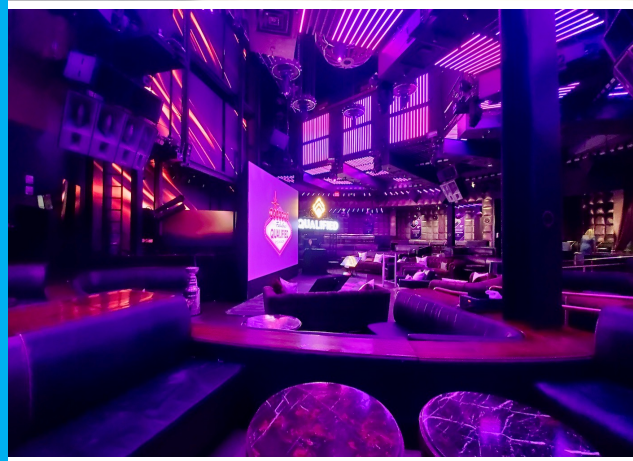

Finally, make sure that your AV partner employs technicians with Certified Technology Specialist™ (CTS®) certification through InfoComm/AVIXA. For more than 30 years, AVIXA has administered the CTS program, recognized worldwide as the leading AV professional credential.

Client Feedback

Here's a sampling of the feedback we regularly receive from our valued clients.

You can check out client testimonial videos here.

"I work with TST because the service is unbelievable. When I call, email, or text, I get fast responses. I always say I only want to go through TST."

- Jill Waite, Account Director, Derse

"TST is our preferred vendor at Steelhead Productions. The TST staff is more like a partner to us, not to mention their response time is awesome."

- Michelle Hilton, Estimator/Project Manager, Steelhead Productions

"What we love about TST is that they're very accessible to us. They answer their calls. They're not our vendor, they're our partner."

- Amy Cimpan, Account Manager, Steelhead Productions

"We've had a long-standing relationship with TST since 2009. We can count on TST to deliver a higher level of AV service for our conference rooms, general sessions, and exhibits that enhances our entire show experience."

- Kristin Lewis, VP, Event Operations, Questex LLC, Nightclub & Bar Show

"I have challenges when it comes to lighting, staging, illuminating, audio visual, and TST is my go to. TST is the only company I would recommend. They've been a part of every successful event we've had. When there's a problem, they solve it. They solve problems before I even know the problem is happening. They're at the forefront of the AV arena, and I think very highly of them."

- Kristina Crawford, Executive Director, American Lung Association in Nevada

"We were looking for an AV company for our SuperZoo Trade Show. I chose TST because they work within my budget and they are open and friendly."

- Kathy Branson, Director of Trade Shows, World Pet Association, Inc.

TST is an amazing company because of our people.

Our average employee tenure is eight years, which is unheard of at most audiovisual event production companies. Let's just say we don't host too many goodbye parties.

They stick around because they know we always have their best interests at heart.

Our clients, in turn, recognize that these dedicated team members are committed to making their lives easier and always making them look good.

Thank You!
